The Company's Revised Manual mandates the Company's Directors to act judiciously and devote time and attention necessary to properly discharge their duties and responsibilities. With this mandate, the Directors are expected to act on a fully informed basis, in good faith, with due diligence and care, and in the best interest of the Company.

To ensure that the Board of Directors act on a fully informed basis, with due diligence, and in the best interest of the Company; (i) the Board receives regular reports from Management and Heads of Strategic Business Units (SBUs) on the operations of the Company and its subsidiaries, (ii) any matter requiring the Board's attention is promptly elevated to the members of the Board, and deliberated upon in the Board meetings, and (iii) materials for the board meetings are distributed to the Board of Directors at least five days before the board meeting through the Diligent Boardbooks.

In addition, the Board of Directors ensure that key financial decisions related to investment/capital expenditure considered by various businesses in which the Company has direct equity undergo appropriate processes and approval.

Moreover, as an exercise of fairness and good faith, the decisions by the Board of Directors on appointment of Officer and material transactions, among others, including possible conflict of interest are immediately disclosed to the public.

Lastly, in order to provide a better understanding of the Company's operations in different industries where it operates, the members of the Board of Directors conduct

To ensure the faithful and effective discharge of its functions, the Board is supported in the performance of its functions by the six board committees - the Environmental, Social and Corporate Governance (ESCG) Committee, the Board Audit Committee, the Risk and Reputation Management Committee, the Related Party Transactions (RPT) Committee, the Executive Committee and the Cyber and Information Security Committee which was established in March 2021. Each committee oversees or implements an important aspect of the Company's strategy and governance framework. In turn, each committee is assisted by Senior Officers and highly qualified professionals to ensure that the Company's business objectives and strategies are cascaded, implemented, and properly monitored within their specific spheres of functions.

Provide information on voting system, if any. | Non-Compliant | | The Company has adopted the statutory shareholder voter protection requirements under the Revised Corporation Code and the PSE and SEC rules. These require either supermajority vote or majority of minority vote on certain transactions. In addition, all common shareholders of the Company are entitled to the exact same voting rights. The Company's RPT Policy also sets out clear guidelines as to the manner in which related-party transactions are presented to the RPT Committee and the transactions that require action on the part of the RPT Committee. Finally, the Company also presents all Board and Company actions (including all related-party transactions) for ratification at each annual shareholders meeting. In 2019, the Company has adopted the Revised RPT Policy in compliance with SEC Memorandum Circular No. 10 series of 2019. Six of the seven or majority of the Company's Risk and Reputation Management Committee are Independent Directors and Non-Executive Directors (including the Chairman), with only one committee member as an Executive Director. The committee is supported by non-voting Ex-Officio members who are members of AEV's senior management.

The Company believes that including the Non-Executive Directors and an Executive Director in the Committee allows it to have a more holistic view of the Company's risk profile, as well as of the risks facing the businesses in which it operates. The composition of the Committee also enables it to take into consideration the perspective of senior management as it oversees the identification, measurement, monitoring and controlling of the Company's principal business risks.
